

Marc Ribot –Solo Rider (2018)

Contractual Rider

SOUND

These solo concerts are extremely quiet. A quiet sound system must be provided. If power amps with loud fans are located near the stage, they must be completely muted and covered or else be located outside the concert space.

The Venue must be free of all machine noise and keep the room as silent as possible. They must turn off or shut down machines that hum and ventilation systems which create ambient noise during the performance, including lighting systems with audible fans and coolers and refrigerators at the bar. If there is a bar, all wait staff need to be as quiet as possible and make every effort to keep the audience quiet. Lighting systems with noisy voltage regulators or dimmer switches should be rewired to skip the dimmer switch. One or two directly wired lights with gels are acceptable.

All shows must be seated. No standing gigs. No exceptions.
Stage must be clean and free of equipment and instruments from other performances!
